FACULTY FILE

Ms. Charlyn Blythe

Ms. Blythe hails from the island of Jamaica where she received her early formal education. There she developed a passion for teaching, following in the footsteps of her mother. In 2012, her family migrated to the USA. After completing her elementary and secondary education, she matriculated at Oakwood University in Huntsville, Alabama, receiving her bachelor's degree in general studies, majoring in elementary education.

Upon completion, she accepted a position at the F. H. Jenkins Preparatory School as a second-grade teacher. She is passionate about positively impacting young lives.

Charlyn plans to pursue her master's in psychology and/or business marketing. She finds joy in traveling and spending quality time with her family. Her philosophy: Nothing is impossible (through Christ), Her favorite Bible Verse: Philippians 4:13 "I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me".

In a world often defined by its challenges, the spirit of generosity and community support shone brightly during F. H. Jenkins' recent Giving Tuesday campaign. his annual global movement harnesses the power of generosity, and F. H. Jenkins Prep stood out as a shining example of how collective goodwill can create a lasting impact.

As the Giving Tuesday buzz grew, FHJ Prep strategically crafted a campaign that resonated with their supporters. Weeks of planning and preparation led to an inspiring and impactful initiative that aimed to address the need for high quality Christian education.

The response exceeded expectations. Donors rallied behind FHJ Prep, surpassing fundraising goals and setting new benchmarks. This year the fundraising goal was set for $25,000 for this campaign. The outpouring of generosity showcased the community's commitment to the mission and vision of FHJ Prep. Together our community contributed over $31,000 for the 2023 FHJ Prep Giving Tuesday campaign.

In the end, the success of the Giving Tuesday initiative stands as a testament to the extraordinary things that can be achieved when communities unite in a shared vision of kindness, compassion, and giving.

THANK YOU TO ALL OF OUR DONORS.

Go Ye Therefore

This year for FHJ Prep's annual Bible Expo, scholars brought the Book of Acts to life. They each created a 3-dimensional project along with an informational board depicting their portion of scripture. The theme for this year was "Go Ye Therefore." Through the scholars projects we were able to get a better understanding of Jesus' sacrifice, as well as what it means to share the good news of Christ with others.

This year FHJ Prep scholars presented the story of Jesus' birth from the perspective of the animals. The animals heralded the great news that Christ had arrived, and boy did they put on a show to welcome the King!
